UNITED STATES OF AMERICA : SEALED INDICTMENT

- v. - :

19 Cr.

BRYAN COHEN,

Defendant.

19 CRIM 741

- - - - - X

COUNT ONE

(Conspiracy to Commit Securities Fraud)

The Grand Jury charges:

Relevant Individuals and Entities

1. At all times relevant to this Indictment, Investment Bank A was a global investment banking advisory firm with offices in, among other locations, London, England, and Manhattan, New York.

2. At all times relevant to this Indictment, BRYAN COHEN, the defendant, was employed in the investment banking division of Investment Bank A, first as an associate in London, England, and later as a vice president in Manhattan, New York.

3. At all times relevant to this Indictment, a co-conspirator not named as a defendant herein ("CC-1") was a securities trader residing in Switzerland.

4. At all times relevant to this Indictment, Buffalo Wild Wings, Inc. ("Buffalo") was a bar and restaurant chain headquartered in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Buffalo's securities traded under the symbol "BWLD" on the NASDAQ. During the relevant time period, Buffalo was a client of Investment Bank A.

The Insider Trading Scheme

5. By virtue of his employment at Investment Bank A, BRYAN COHEN, the defendant, had access to material, non-public information ("MNPI") relating to corporate transactions. COHEN understood that such information relating to corporate transactions was strictly confidential and that, pursuant to Investment Bank A's policies and procedures, he was prohibited from trading on such information or sharing such information for the purpose of enabling others to trade based on it.

6. Notwithstanding his duties to keep this information confidential, from at least in or about 2015 through at least in or about 2017, BRYAN COHEN, the defendant, passed MNPI he had obtained from Investment Bank A to CC-1, with the understanding that CC-1 would trade based on that information. During the course of the scheme, COHEN provided both the facts of potential corporate acquisitions as well updates about how the deals were progressing over time to CC-1.

7. After receiving MNPI from BRYAN COHEN, the defendant, CC-1 traded upon that information thereby earning substantial profits. CC-1 executed such trades through, among other avenues, an investment fund (the "Fund") run by CC-1 and a business associate of CC-1's (the "Associate").

8. In exchange for providing the MNPI from Investment Bank A, CC-1 provided BRYAN COHEN, the defendant, with benefits, including cash.

9. BRYAN COHEN, the defendant, also took steps to conceal his unlawful scheme. For example, COHEN and CC-1 communicated through unregistered "burner" cellphones and arranged for cash to be paid to COHEN in-person and through intermediaries. After he began working in New York, COHEN picked up burner phones at a business run by the Associate in Manhattan, New York (the "Business").

Statutory Allegations

10. From at least in or about 2015 through in or about 2017, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, BRYAN COHEN, the defendant, and others known and unknown, willfully and knowingly combined, conspired, confederated, and agreed together and with each other to commit an offense against the United States, to wit, securities fraud, in violation of Title 15, United States Code, Sections 78j(b) and 78ff, and Title 17, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 240.10b-5.

11. It was a part and an object of the conspiracy that BRYAN COHEN, the defendant, and others known and unknown, willfully and knowingly, directly and indirectly, by the use of means and instrumentalities of interstate commerce, and of the mails, and of facilities of national securities exchanges, would and did use and employ, in connection with the purchase and sale of securities, manipulative and deceptive devices and contrivances in violation of Title 17, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 240.10b-5, by: (a) employing devices, schemes, and artifices to defraud; (b) making untrue statements of material fact and omitting to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; and (c) engaging in acts, practices, and courses of business which operated and would operate as a fraud and deceit upon persons.

Overt Acts

12. In furtherance of the conspiracy, and to effect the illegal objects thereof, BRYAN COHEN, the defendant, and others known and unknown, committed the following overt acts, among others, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere:

a. On or about September 12, 2017, COHEN communicated by phone with an individual working at the Business in Manhattan, New York from which COHEN picked up burner phones.

b. In or about October 2017, COHEN, while employed at Investment Bank A in Manhattan, New York, accessed documents and information related to a potential acquisition of Buffalo.

(Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.)

14. From at least in or about 2015 through in or about 2017, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, BRYAN COHEN, the defendant, and others known and unknown, willfully and knowingly, did combine, conspire, confederate, and agree together and with each other to commit (a) wire fraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343; and (b) securities fraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1348.

15. It was a part and an object of the conspiracy that BRYAN COHEN, the defendant, and others known and unknown, willfully and knowingly, having devised and intending to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud, and for obtaining money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, would and did transmit and cause to be transmitted by means of wire, radio, and television communication in interstate and foreign commerce, writings, signs, signals, pictures, and sounds for the purpose of
